Update

Summer Locations

It has been a year since construction began at 87th Street, and staff offices and programs moved into our temporary home at 4 E. 90th Street. In a few months, staff offices and programs will move back to 87th Street, and we will all enjoy the revitalized space.

While the building is being prepared for our return in the fall, Shabbat services will again move to temporary locations in the summer. Here is where to find services and staff in June, July, and August.

Watch for more information in the July-August Bulletin and at www.pasyn.org/transition.
