In Western European countries and in America, it has become the custom to mark the setting of the tombstone with a service. In America, the tombstone or marker is covered with a cloth which is removed by the family during the service, so the ritual is called the “unveiling.”

The unveiling usually takes place near the first yahrzeit, that is, twelve months after the death, but it may be as soon after as thirty days, or after a year has passed. While there is no traditional basis for this service, except for the custom of visiting the grave on the day of the yahrzeit, it has become an accepted practice, offering the family an additional opportunity to pay tribute to their loved one together.

The ceremony does not require the presence of a rabbi or cantor; a family member or friend may lead the service in Hebrew or in English. There is no set liturgy for an unveiling. You can follow the service in this booklet, or you can substitute or add other psalms, poems, or readings as well as personal reflections or reminiscences.
Psalm 23

A Psalm of David.
Adonai is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
God makes me lie down in green pastures.
God leads me beside the still waters.
God restores my soul.
God leads me in the paths of righteousness for God’s name’s sake.
Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of Death,
I will fear no evil: for You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.
You anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of Adonai forever.
Psalm 121

A song for ascents.
I turn my eyes to the mountains; from where will my help come?
My help comes from Adonai, maker of heaven and earth.
God will not let your foot give way; your guardian will not slumber;
See, the guardian of Israel neither slumbers nor sleeps!
Adonai is your guardian, Adonai is your protection at your right hand.
By day the sun will not strike you, nor the moon by night.
Adonai will guard you from all harm; God will guard your life.
Adonai will guard your going and coming now and forever.

יהלום מצתה
A Litany of Remembrance
by Rabbi Sylvan Kamens and Rabbi Jack Riemer

At the rising sun and at its going down, we remember them.
At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, we remember them.
At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them.
At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer, we remember them.
At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of the autumn, we remember them.
At the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them.
As long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us as we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.
When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.
When we have decisions that are difficult to make, we remember them.
When we have joy we crave to share, we remember them.
When we have achievements that are based on theirs, we remember them.
For as long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us as, we remember them.

If you wish, invite family members and friends to share reflections. They may like to talk about their experience of mourning or share a memory of the person whose marker is being unveiled. These reflections are optional and the service is still complete without personal reflections. After this time for sharing, continue

Ha-rofeh li-shvurei leiv u-m’habeish l’atzvodam.
Adonai heals the brokenhearted, and binds up their wounds.
—Psalm 147:3

Almighty God, Master of mercy, whose compassion endures forever, let neither death nor sorrow have dominion over us. Grant comfort, strength and consolation to those who mourn, as it is written: “Adonai shall be your enduring light, and the days of your mourning shall come to an end.”

Bless this family with love and peace, that they may serve You with a perfect heart. Accept our act of devotion, Adonai, as we consecrate this monument to the memory of
