

REDEDICATION

REFLECT
Worship
Prayer/תפילה
Modeh Ani

Modeh ani is an Ashkenazic prayer of gratitude composed in the late Middle Ages specifically to be said upon opening one's eyes in the morning, before getting out of bed.

For more notes on the prayer, look in Siddur Lev Shalem for Shabbat and Festivals (p. 99).

You can also find Modeh ani and other morning blessings in the PAS Siddur for Youth (p. 44).

מוֹדֵה־מוֹדָה אֲנִי לְפָנֶיךָ,
מֶלֶךְ חַי וְקַיִם,
שֶׁהֵחֵזַרְתָּ בִּי נִשְׁמַתִּי בְּחַמְלָה,
רַבָּה אֱמוּנָתֶךָ.

Modeh/Modah ani l'fanekha
melekh hai v'kayam,
she-hehezarta bi nishmati b'hemlah,
rabbah emunatekha

I thank You,
living and eternal sovereign,
for Your kindness in restoring my soul.
How great is your faithfulness!